MY JESUS, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

MORE VOLUNTEERS? CAN YOU HELP?

THANK YOU to all those who have come forward to volunteer steward and clean at Masses. At the moment, however, weekday Masses and 5pm Sunday Parish Mass are impossible until more volunteers have come forward. If you can volunteer, either now or in the future, please speak to one of the clergy. More volunteers mean more events.

UNIVERSITY CHAPLAINCY MASS IS AT ST JOSEPH'S CHURCH at 1230. Although for students, anyone is welcome to attend which will help if 1045 remains full. A warm welcome to all students!

WHO'S WHO AMONG THE PARISH CLERGY..?

Fr Stephen - the tall one, with combed back hair and round glasses – is parish priest here and parish priest of St Thomas More

Fr Peter – not so tall, with a brummie accent and proud of it – is assistant priest here and assistant Catholic chaplain at the University

Deacon David – white hair and sounding like he comes from Surrey (which he does) – is the Catholic Chaplain to Warwick University and the parish deacon here. Do say hello and introduce yourselves: the clergy will be outside after Mass.

FR STEPHEN WRITES: The great command of Jesus is to love. To love God and to love one another. Jesus's ministry is all about that: and demonstrated most fully by His dying on the cross. 'Greater love has no man', He said, 'than to lay down his life for his friends'. We are thus declared His friends and the objects of His love. Love is to be the hallmark of the Christian because love is the hall mark of Christ. If we could only grasp the depth of that love. If we could only realise that if Jesus loves us enough to die for us, then who are we to look at our fellow human beings without love? If God can love them, how can we not! Our response to God is first to worship Him in love and then to serve Him in our fellow human beings. As Fr Peter notes below, we have a solid tradition of both those here. May we keep that up!

FR PETER REFLECTS: Since the parish's establishment in the 1960s we have welcomed people from many different countries, who have come to Coventry to live, work or study. Looking through our archives, I noted that there has been a strong tradition of supporting justice and peace causes, both internationally and locally. These have included raising awareness about child slavery, contributing to the Hope Coventry Winter Night Shelter and taking part in the Fair Trade and Live Simply campaigns. It is appropriate, in this year of St Joseph, that we honour this heritage. During June there will be a Zoom discussion group based on Pope Francis's new book about transforming society called Let Us Dream. Also, at the back of the Church, there are now two pictures of Saints either side of a map of the world that we can gain inspiration from. St Martin de Porres, canonised in 1962, the year we were formally established, is the patron of harmony between all races. Beatified in 1988, seven years after the present church was opened, and canonised in 2000, St Katharine Drexel dedicated her life, on the Feast of St Joseph (19th March 1891), to care for the Black and Native American communities. She echoes the guiding and nurturing role of St Joseph and witnesses to the example of St Martin, when she encourages us by saying: "If we wish to serve God and love our neighbour well, we must manifest our joy in the service we render to him and them."

PUBLIC MASSES IN THE PARTNERED PARISHES

Sunday Vigil Mass at STM: 5.00pm Saturday
Sunday Masses: 9.00am at STM & 10.45am at SJW
& 1230 Univ Chaplaincy Mass at SJW

PLEASE REMEMBER that parishioners and students alike are very welcome at either 1045 or 1230 Masses. There are seats available at 1230: don't feel you have to stand outside at 1045, try 1230. We look forward to social distancing being eased and the prospect of allowing a bigger congregation in church.

Friday Mass: 9.00am at STM followed by Exposition No 5.30pm Sunday Mass at SJW. It needs more volunteers...

Can YOU help? Please tell one of the clergy if so. Please make use of live streams: you will find Mass, Exposition, meditations, and much else broadcast from the two parishes. See news sheets or websites for web links.

THE SECOND SUNDAY MASS HERE means that Fr Stephen and Fr Peter can alternate once more celebrating at the 1045 Mass, as we did last year.

READING AT MASS Deacon David has kindly offered to organise the return of readers at Mass. Please speak to him if you would be happy to read and he will explain the simple steps we still need to take to follow Covid rules.

PRAY THE ROSARY TO END THE PANDEMIC
Pope Francis has called for a Rosary marathon this month across the world for us all to pray to end the pandemic.

LAST WEEK'S COLLECTION: £190 Thank you

MORE VOLUNTEERS TO CLEAN & STEWARD WELCOME! Especially if you can help at 5pm on Sunday.

Please see June Palmer or contact the parish.

GIVING TO THE PARISH Set up a regular or single donation on the diocesan website:
