MORE VOLUNTEERS? CAN YOU HELP?

THANK YOU to all those who have come forward to volunteer steward and clean at Masses. At the moment, however, weekday Masses and 5pm Sunday Parish Mass are impossible until more volunteers have come forward. If you can volunteer, either now or in the future, please speak to one of the clergy. More volunteers mean more events. We look forward to announcements later this month that may well relax the need for volunteers

UNIVERSITY CHAPLAINCY MASS IS AT ST JOSEPH'S CHURCH at 1230. Although for students, anyone is welcome to attend which will help if 1045 remains full. A warm welcome to all students and staff!

WHO'S WHO

AMONG THE PARISH CLERGY..?

Fr Stephen - the tall one, with combed back hair and round glasses - is parish priest here and parish priest of St Thomas More

Fr Peter - not so tall, with a brummie accent and proud of it - is assistant priest here and assistant Catholic chaplain at the University

Deacon David - white hair and sounding like he comes from Surrey (which he does) - is the Catholic Chaplain to Warwick University and the parish deacon here.

Do say hello and introduce yourselves.

Don't hesitate to be in contact if we can help.

PUBLIC MASSES IN THE PARTNERED PARISHES

Sunday Vigil Mass at STM: 5.00pm Saturday

Friday Mass: 9.00am at STM followed by Exposition

Can YOU help clean or steward? Please tell one of the clergy if so. We hope that pandemic regulations ease in a few weeks, making volunteering less vital. We shall see...

FR STEPHEN WRITES: The recurring theme in this week's readings is trees. God, in the reading from Ezekiel, speaks of His power and might through the idea of causing new trees to grow from old, the diseased to be healed and the luscious to become dried up. Jesus's parable is a much more famous passage. God's kingdom can be compared to a growing seed: how it grows, how fast it grows and what it grows into we cannot control, or understand, but grow it does. Jesus underlines the silent power of God here. His kingdom cannot be thwarted. Yes, the sinfulness of those both inside and outside the Church can be a real obstacle to its growth. Persecution can do much to harm it. Limited earthly resources may seem to limit opportunities. But, regardless, with the slow but sure growth that Jesus compares to a seed, grow and survive it does. How can it be otherwise, for as Jesus taught us to pray, "Thy kingdom come..."? With the encouragement of Gospel truth, therefore, we open ourselves up to the challenges and opportunities of today. The Archbishop's letter to us today encourages us as we unfold God's plan for the Archdiocese in the twenty first century, and our parish's part in that.

FR PETER REFLECTS: The Pope is inviting every diocese in the world to enter a focused and imaginative period for the next two years of listening and dialogue. This is with a view to deepening our faith, by seeking to understand and be transformed by the Gospel truths, in fresh ways: "Tradition is not a museum, true religion is not a freezer, and doctrine is not static but grows and develops, like a tree that remains the same yet which gets bigger and bears ever more fruit. There are some who...hear the word "discernment" and worry that it's a fancy way of ignoring rules or some clever modern ruse to downgrade the truth, when it is quite the opposite. Discernment is as old as the Church. It follows from the promise Jesus made to his disciples that after he was gone the Spirit "will guide you into all truth" (John 16:13). There is no contradiction between being solidly rooted in the truth and at the same time being open to a greater understanding. The Spirit continues to guide us in our translating the Good News into different contexts, so that the words of Jesus continue to resound in the hearts of men and women in every age. That is why I like to quote Gustav Mahler, that "tradition is not a repositior of ashes but the preservation of fire". The Spirit shows us new things through what the Church calls "signs of the times". Discerning the signs of the times allows us to make sense of change. In interpreting and praying over other events or trends in light of the Gospel, we can detect movements that reflect the values of God's Kingdom or their opposite." (p57).

THIS WEEKEND We hear Archbishop Bernard's Pastoral Letter, introducing the Archdiocese's Vision:

Unfolding God's Plan. Please look out for the prayer cards in church, and feel free to share copies with those who are unable to come to Mass. There will be much to consider as this and every parish plans not only for the world after Covid, but also an archdiocese planning its best use of limited resources in the service of the Gospel.

ZOOM DISCUSSION GROUP on Let Us Dream led by Fr Peter and Fr Stephen, to which all from STM and SJW are invited, will be held on Thursdays 17, 24 June and 1 July at 7pm for about 45 minutes. Please email one of the clergy for Zoom details.

COMMUNION FOR THE HOUSEBOUND As the Covid restrictions about going into private homes ease, it is possible to offer Communion once more to the housebound who ordinarily received it. If you are housebound and feel that you are ready and it is safe for you to receive Communion at home again, please contact one of the priests. You may or may not feel the time is right: that is entirely up to you.

CONGRATULATIONS to Luke Daly and Laura Hewlett who were married here on Friday.

READING AT MASS Henry Whitney is now kindly organising the return of readers at Mass.
